Pre-K 3 through 8th Grade.

We follow Jesus Christ in the Catholic tradition of worship, community and service to each other.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Prayers for Peace Can Advance The Cause

This is my 7-5-18 JERSEY JOURNAL COLUMN

The Capital Gazette murders will be mentioned at all our Masses this weekend. We will pray for the five people killed and the two wounded in perhaps the worst loss of life for a newspaper in the history of the U.S.

Sadly, we have done this so many times: pray for innocent people killed in a random, senseless murder by a crazed gunman who should not have had access to guns.

We at Our Lady of Grace and St. Joseph in Hoboken have taken it one step further. We have incorporated a peace prayer at every Sunday Mass and hope this will catch on and inspire other houses of worship to do the same.

It goes back to something Catholic churches throughout the world did up until the mid-1960s.

At the end of every Mass at Holy Rosary Church in Jersey City until I was in the sixth grade, we would pray the "Prayer to St. Michael, the Archangel," for the conversion of Russia.

"O Prince of the heavenly hosts," it reads in part, "by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world."

Prayers for Russia dated back to Pope Leo XIII in the late 19th century. In 1930, Pope Pius XI declared that prayers after Mass be offered for the tranquility and freedom of the Catholic Church in Russia and that's how they began to be called Prayers for the Conversion of Russia. Pius XII called upon the church to pray for the conversion of Russia after he personally consecrated the people of Russia to the Immaculate Heart in 1952.

Sixty-six years later, Russia is just one of a multitude of concerns throughout the world that can be prayed for.

Monsignor James Finnerty, now retired and residing at Peace Care at St. Ann's Home for the Aged in Jersey City, recalls having prayed the Prayer to St. Michael from his days at Seton Hall Prep.

"It was a good prayer and always a special prayer," he said.

Though he questioned whether Russia ever really converted, he mentioned that during the papacy of John Paul II, Communism fell and Orthodox Christianity revived so, in a way, the prayer worked.

Does prayer work? I think it's worth a try.

Eleven years ago, New York sister of Charity Maria Iglesias composed a special peace prayer for our parish and we started off praying it every Tuesday at the end of Mass. About a year ago, I noticed that there were so many mass shootings in the U.S. and terrorist acts all over world -- almost on a daily basis -- that I was editing our Prayers of the Faithful for almost every Sunday.

So, we printed and distributed Iglesias' special prayer to all our parishioners and translated it into Spanish. We pasted it into every music hymnal so parishioners can join and pray it every Sunday at the conclusion of the Prayers of the Faithful.

"Through memory and commitment, we can reach God's design for unity," Blauvelt Dominican Sister Arlene Flaherty, who lived many years in Jersey City, said. "We can all recover the oneness by which God created us and address all the problems of suffering, self-centeredness, greed and violence." For many years, Flaherty worked at the Interfaith Center for Justice and Peace in Manhattan and later Catholic Relief Services.

"This work helped me see that what drives people to come to the U.S. from all over are corruption at home, poverty and having no choices," she said.

Today, she is the peace and justice coordinator for the School Sisters of Notre Dame, an order based in Wilton, Connecticut.

We need a prayer for peace. I hope pastors, religious leaders and bishops are listening. Prayer is powerful.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL, THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou,

O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world.

Fuel	$ 759.00	$ 162.00
Main. & Rep.	$ 10.00	$ 0.00
Utilities	$ 51.00	$ 0.00

We have set $6,000 at OLG and $1,700 at St. Joseph as the goals for us to reach each weekend, excluding any debt reduction or special collection.

Next week's second collection is for Maintenance and Repairs.

EASTER COLLECTION

We thank you for your generosity in the Easter collection -- the highest in the history of OLG -- not counting for inflation -- was $94,714.00. At St. Joseph, we collected $2,882.97. We are preparing our church for future generations.

NEW MINISTERS

We welcome parishioners who would like to become a Minister of the Word (Lector) and the Eucharist at Sunday Masses. Please come to one training session: Wednesday, August 1, 2018 – 7:30 PM or Saturday, August 4, 2018, - 6 PM or Tuesday August 7 –7:30 PM or Sunday, August 12, 2018, - 2 PM. Come to OLG Church and enter through the ramp door.

MURIEL CLARK

Our parishioner, Muriel Clark, is in The Harborage at Palisades Medical Center, 7600 River Road, North Bergen, NJ 07047, (201) 854-5400. She turns 95 on July 17, 2018. Consider sending her a birthday card.

OUR BIG FLEA MARKET

We are now gearing up for our next big event, "Ann and Ronnie's Super Flea Market, Used Book Sale and Silent Auction," which will be held on Sunday, September 23, 2018. Now is the time to clear your spare rooms, attics, basements, and storage units for all kinds of items you can donate to OLG. We have a huge general table, children's toys, holiday decorations and clothes. Please bring items to the choir room on Sundays and to the Parish Center during the week. You may reserve a space for $35 and must bring your own table and chairs to sell your items. Space is assigned on a first-come first serve basis.

DRY DOCK HEARING

The Army Corps of Engineers will hold a hearing on the Union Dry Dock waterfront land use on July 18, 2018, and allow residents and other interested parties to voice their opinions on New York Waterway using the waterfront property as a ferry refueling and docking station. The company plans to landscape it for public use, as well. It will be held at Stevens Institute DeBaun Auditorium on the corner of 5th Street and Hudson between 6 & 9 PM.

NEW WEDDING POLICY

From now on, we will not accept a wedding for people who register just to get married here. We expect you will worship for a period of six months before we even set a date for a wedding. Once you satisfy this requirement, we can set a date one year in advance from that time. We are not a typical parish. We have people who move to Hoboken from all over the country and even world. Some people decide to marry in their home parish or elsewhere and you will receive permission after you have worshipped for six months.

CCD TEACHERS

We are looking for individuals who would like to assist with our CCD or religious education program for one hour on Sunday mornings beginning in September through May. Classes are not held on long weekends. There are opportunities for team teaching. Angela Maffei, our pastoral associate, will prepare you. Please contact her at the rectory or see Fr. Santora.

Maria E. Espinoza Leone, mother of Fr. Fernando Guillen.

CHAPEL:

Sanctuary Lamp is in loving memory of Msgr.
Walter Gorski.

Bread and Wine are in loving memory of Fr. Joseph Bagley.

ST. JOSEPH

Altar Bread and Wine are in honor of Rev. Kenneth Herbster.

Altar Candles are in memory of Rev Patrick
Delaney.

PRAYER NEEDS

THE SICK: Phyllis Smith, Jeanette Brancato, Johanna Fuggazi, Laura Santora

SUMMER AT OLG

Please sit up close and in the center of the church
so you benefit from the fans and allow us to cut back on the lights. Liturgically, this makes a difference in the celebration of the Eucharist. Sitting closer helps the singing and the common prayers since we reinforce each other. Until the Sunday after Labor Day, we reduce some of the singing at Mass.

BECOMING CATHOLIC

Do you need to prepare for your Communion and/or Confirmation? Do you know someone who wants to become Catholic? Now is the time to contact Fr.
Phil or Angela Maffei, our pastoral associate, so you can begin the preparation in September. There will be an inquiry session with Fr. Phil on Wednesday,
July 25, 2018, from 7:30 to 8:30 in the Parish Center.

FUNERAL PREPARATION

We have free copies of the book, "Continuing the Journey...Preparing the Catholic Funeral," prepared by the Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese. You may obtain one at the Parish Center. Call ahead and speak to Ronnie, who will have it ready for you.

MENSAJE SEMANAL

En la segunda lectura de este domingo, escuchamos las palabras muy poderosas de San Pablo a los Efesios: “Él nos eligió en Cristo, antes de crear el mundo, para que fuéramos santos e irreprochables a sus ojos, por el amor, y determinó, porque así lo quiso, que, por medio de Jesucristo, fuéramos sus hijos, para que alabemos y glorifiquemos la gracia con que nos ha favorecido por medio de su Hijo amado.”

Como catolicos, frecuentemente, escuchamos la palabra “predestinación,” y reculamos. Nos parece como una idea calvinista, del siglo XVI. Pero esta idea no fue inventado por Juan Calvin, o ningun otro reformador protestante; lo encontramos en las Escrituras – es una doctrina de la fe que la iglesia ha enseñado desde el inicio. Y la doctrina que encontramos en las Escrituras no es una “predestinación” en que Dios quita nuestro libre albedrío, o nos destina para la perdición, pero una predestinación que, desde el inicio, da una dirección y orientación decisiva a nuestras vidas. Tenemos un propósito, que ha sido dado a nosotros antes de nuestro nacimiento, aún “antes de crear el mundo,” para ser los hijos adoptivos de Dios por Jesucristo.

Es un don que el Señor nos da, en su amor, y lo renueva para nosotros, día tras día. Lo más que entramos en esa identidad como sus hijos, en imitar a Jesucristo, en cuya imagen hemos sido creados, lo más que poseemos la paz y la satisfacción que el Señor tanto desea para cada uno de nosotros.

En el amor de Cristo,
Padre Felipe
